KATHRYN WEVLEY

TEACHING ARTIST

WORK EXPERIENCE

Teaching Artist (2026 - Present)

Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts - Orlando, FL

- Disney Musicals in Schools: Lead theatre instruction for up to 80 students at Title I schools, introducing students to musical theatre through Disney programming.
- AdventHealth School of the Arts: Develop and facilitate acting lessons for homeschool students ages 6–14.
- Project WoW: Deliver arts-integrated science lessons at local elementary schools, introducing early childhood students to science through theatre and dance.

Teaching Artist (2026 - Present)

Orlando Family Stage - Orlando, FL

- Teach theatre classes and camps for elementary-aged students, developing performance skills through creative drama, storytelling, and theatre games.
- Plan and lead themed creative drama experiences that foster creativity, confidence, collaboration, and self-expression, including Homeschool Creative Drama: Tiana's Bayou Adventure.

Teaching Artist (2025)

Imagination Stage - Bethesda, MD

- Co-taught week-long theatre camps for grades 2–8, leading engaging, storytelling-driven activities and adapting instruction for diverse ages, abilities, and experience levels.
- Supported theatre instruction across multiple programs, including Theatre Arts Sampler (co-teaching), Film & Sketch Comedy, and Shakespeare & Stage Combat (assisting).

Student Teacher (2025)

Skyline Middle School - Harrisonburg, VA /
Shenendoah Valley Governor's School - Staunton,VA

- Taught theatre at a Title I middle school and provided acting instruction in a pre-professional high school theatre program.
- Designed and led theatre curriculum, assistant directed the middle school's spring play, and collaborated with teachers to foster inclusive, student-centered learning.

Director - A Wrinkle in Time (2024)

James Madison University - Harrisonburg, VA

- Directed a full-length Theatre for Young Audiences production, leading a 20-member team through rehearsals, technical production, and performances.
- Expanded youth access and inclusion by coordinating the Studio Theatre's first student matinee with non-profit Any Given Child and launching its first Sensory Friendly Performance.

Orlando, FL

kitkatwev@gmail.com

571-385-8701

WEBSITE PORTFOLIO

https://kathrynwevley.wixsite.com/kathryn-wevley-1

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts
Theatre Education
JAMES MADISON UNIVERSITY
Harrisonburg, VA
Graduated May 2025

SKILLS

- Lesson planning
- Classroom management
- Community engagement
- Student assessment
- Creative problem-solving
- Inclusive Teaching Practices
- Directing
- Acting
- Costume and Puppet Design
- Customer Service

CERTIFICATIONS

Virginia Teaching License
CPR/AED

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

JMU Steven Snyder Creative Achievement Senior Award

Awarded after directing A Wrinkle in Time,

Girl Scouts of the Nation's Capital - Gold Award and Scholarship

Produced 200 reusable menstrual pads and business training materials for women in Haiti.